A TREAT AT MISS BERRY'S SCHOOL.

The pupils of Miss Berry's school, which began a two weeks' vacation on Monday, the 20th instant, received a Christmas treat from their kind teacher, last night. The pupils, accompanied by parents, other relatives, and friends, met in the school-room, on Emma street.

The children's treat was preceded by a treat to the visitors from the pupils, in the form of a little play adapted to the years and capacity of the youthful players. Miss Berry compiled the play largely from old and familiar nursery characters, making them into a harmonious whole. The children were all attired in apparel suited to their respective parts. Sadie Brown was the Fairy Queen, Marian Dowsett and Mary Godfrey, the Queen's Maids of Honor; Sam Dowsett, Master of Ceremonies; Maxie Orendstein, Freddie Platt, and Allie Lucas, Pages; Willie Rawlins and Robert McLean, Knights; Jacob Orendstein, Boy Blue; Willie Godfrey, Old King Cole; Mary French, Little Bo Peep; Emily Carlson, Mother Hubbard; Walter D. Giffard, the King of Jesters; Edwin Brown and Millie Rawlins, Jack and Jill; and Floss Hill, Mother Goose.

The pretty way in which every little actor and actress, without exception, played his and her character was extremely pleasing to the mothers and fathers present, who could not help feeling grateful to the faithful teacher who had evidently bestowed so much patient pains upon their children.

Now came the children's treat. On the temporary stage, where the young players interested and amused their elders, was a "fairy bower," from which every pupil received a gift, as did every juvenile present, and some who were absent. Weren't those little innocent hearts delighted, and didn't their guileless faces beam with joy? The sight made some old folks feel young again.

Just at this stage an event which had been designed by the pupils came very unexpectedly to their teacher. Little Millie Rawlins, representing the school, approached Miss Berry, and read in a clear voice and with distinct enunciation the following short address, to which every scholar's name was appended: "Dear Teacher, We, your loving, although sometimes thoughtless, pupils, ask you to accept from us, as a token of the love we feel for you and in celebration of this Christmas time, the little accompanying gift. We are, your loving pupils." The reading was followed by a presentation of the document, and along with it a neat little purse containing gold coins of the United States of America.

The finale of the evening was the passing around of delicious cakes and other confections, of which all who wished partook, old as well as young; and all went home before nine o'clock, pleased and happy—the children pleased with the success of their efforts to please, and happy in the possession of the gifts of their generous teacher; the parents pleased with the work of their offspring, and happy in the satisfaction that their children had been in the care of a good and diligent teacher.

Valuable Real Estate

AT AUCTION.

In the Business Center of Honolulu!

The attention of Capitalists, Trustees and Real Estate Investors, is called to one of the most important sales of Real Estate, for business blocks, ever held in Honolulu; the property being situated in the heart of the city and bounded by Nuuanu, Hotel and Bethel Streets.

The undersigned has received instructions to offer for sale by auction, at his Sale Room, Queen street,

On Saturday, Jan. 18, 1890,

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON.

The whole of that VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY, known as the "BOOTH ESTATE,"

(Excepting only the corner lot on Nuuanu and Hotel streets, owned by Mr. James Oids)

Containing in all 16,000 Square Feet.

This is the most compact and desirable piece of property in Honolulu, and being situated in the heart of the retail business quarter of the city, between the two main arteries of traffic, (Fort and Nuuanu streets), leading to and from the wharves and harbor, it will have a value for all time, and therefore holds out unusual inducements to capitalists, as a remunerative and permanent investment.

The main frontages of this property are 40 feet on Nuuanu street, 93 feet on Hotel street and 125 feet on Bethel street, which three streets have been recently widened by the Government to 40 feet each, and finely macadamised and graded throughout, rendering them the finest thoroughfares in the city. A new street of 12 feet width, which runs through the center of the property from Nuuanu to Bethel streets, has been donated by the owner of the block, and this will give additional street frontage of 195 feet on one side of the new street and 91 feet on the other, so all lots to be sold, leaving no lot without a valuable street frontage and to some of them very desirable and valuable street corners.

Another advantage of this line property as an investment, is its excellent sanitary conditions, and being on the highest part of the city, makai of Hotel street, it will have excellent drainage for buildings erected thereon, and being of sufficient elevation, permits the construction of deep cellars, on account of being beyond the reach of tide water.

The block has been subdivided into building lots, numbering 1 to 12 as can be seen on a large new survey map, now on view at my Sale Room.

The title to the property is perfect. Terms of sale are one third cash, one third one year and one third two years, with interest at 6 per cent per annum.

An examination of this property is solicited, and is confidently recommended as a permanently remunerative investment.
